Are you looking for speakers or a panel presentation on a specific topic for your organization's meetings? We can help!

Small Business Resource Network

The Small Business Resource Network has organized a Speakers Bureau comprised of professional members who represent a comprehensive range of business disciplines. These professionals volunteer their time and expertise as part of their community outreach efforts to address business executives through programs offered by various business and professional associations and trade groups at no cost.

Request a Speaker:

To request a speaker for your program, please visit our website, www.sbrn.org, click on the Speakers Bureau link and complete and submit the Request for Speaker form. If the topic you are interested in is not listed, please let us know and we will find a speaker to meet your request. A representative from SBRN will contact you with a confirmation and speaker contact information.
